The Division of Continuing Education is delighted to offer a scholarship opportunity designed to assist adult students in the completion of their first undergraduate degree.

Scholarships of up to $500 may be awarded to students enrolled in five or fewer credits in one term, and scholarships of up to $1000 may be awarded to students enrolled in six or more credits in one term. Students must meet all eligibility requirements. Awards are based on availability of funds.

Eligibility
- Scholarship may be applied to CU-Boulder credit courses only.
- Students must be enrolled in a course or courses in order to receive an award.
- Students are eligible for this scholarship only once.
- Scholarships are dedicated to students completing their first bachelor’s degree.
- Students must have a minimum of a 2.0 GPA.
- Highest consideration will be given to students who meet the “ready adult” criteria established by the Western Interstate Commission on Higher Education: Students at least 25 years of age who have completed a least 60 credit-hours of course work.
- Awardees who drop or withdraw from their courses will have the scholarship rescinded and may apply again in a future semester.

Application Process
- Complete the following application and send it to:
