

Resource List for Veterans

Center for Student Involvement • colorado.edu/involvement

CU Boulder has hundreds of on-campus activities for students, including more than 300 academic, political, social, religious, and recreational organizations and clubs. These groups give you the chance to find your place at CU Boulder by exploring your interests, meeting new people, building your resume, and making connections for your career.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) • colorado.edu/counseling

Professional counselors offer confidential, on-campus mental health and psychiatric services for a variety of concerns such as academics, anxiety, body image, depression, relationships, substance use and more. Located in the Center for Community, Room S440.

Disability Services • colorado.edu/disabilityservices

This office provides support for students with special needs so they can participate fully in the university. Services include special technologies, a writing lab, screening and testing, and help with accommodations on campus and in the community. Located in the Center for Community, Room N200.

Norlin Library • colorado.edu/libraries/services

You have access to the Norlin Library books, databases, study spaces, and services as a CU Boulder student. If you have a quick question, Ask A Librarian. For a detailed summary of all of their services, please visit the Norlin Library website.

Professors' Office Hours

All instructors hold office hours for students in their classes. We highly encourage students to meet with each of their instructors at the beginning of each term—before the class becomes challenging—to make the most of this beneficial opportunity.

Student Veteran Association • Facebook: CU-Boulder SVA • custudentveterans@colorado.edu

The purpose of the University of Colorado Boulder Student Veterans Association is to increase awareness and understanding of Student Veterans issues on campus, in the local community, and nationally. The organization intends to assist veterans in making successful transitions from military to college life by creating a social and professional support network, educating veterans on the benefits they are entitled to, and providing a welcoming atmosphere at CU Boulder.

Student Computer Support, OIT • colorado.edu/oit/support • 303-735-HELP

The Office of Information and Technology offers drop-in and call-in assistance for students experiencing computer issues.

Tutoring • colorado.edu/oue/tutoring

CU Boulder offers a wide variety of tutoring and learning resources to support you and your academic success. Some are specific to certain classes or departments or groups of students. Most are free while some require a fee. The most up-to-date resource is your professor - so check your syllabus and ask your professor or course assistant for help and referrals.

Veteran and Military Affairs Tutoring & Academic Skills • colorado.edu/veterans • 303-492-7322

VMA offers math and writing tutoring services to military-affiliated students. The VMA office is now also offering support for students with developing fundamental academic skills in: time management, test preparation, organization, mindset, and etc. Contact VMA for more details at veterans@colorado.edu.

Writing Center • colorado.edu/program/writingcenter

The Writing Center provides free advice on writing assignments. An appointment is necessary, but anyone can have up to 70 minutes of consultation per week. Located in the Norlin Library, Room E-111.
